Make the decision to excel in 2011! Set your course toward creating wealth and financial independence. Join President and CEO JR Ridinger and special guests as they outline the pathway to success through owning an UnFranchise business. The evening will be a powerful and informative three-hour event, providing the big picture and vision of Market America, and the next steps you must take to achieve your financial goals. Learn why and how the Management Performance Compensation Plan has become the most powerful ongoing income generator of the 21st Century. Understand why the UnFranchise Business Development System, combined with the power of Internet technology and people power, is creating the economy of the future and is the gateway to your financial success. This coring is perfect for existing business partners as well as qualified prospects to get complete insight on why Market America's UnFranchise business is the right business to choose.
